TRACK COVERAGE

Modern society is experiencing transformative ways to performing common tasks as a result of information and communications technology (ICT). In Healthcare, ICT is already impacting the efficiency of service delivery, helping to achieve savings in healthcare costs and allowing for creativity in service delivery across geographies. Common trends we have seen in the last decade include the development of electronic health records (EHRs), electronic medical records (EMR), electronic Health (e-Health), mobile Health (m-Health), Remote Management, Telemedicine, Remote Hospital Monitoring, and mobile EHR to name a few. In an era of technology adoption, the need for convergence and the expectation to have information on the fly, Healthcare will likely witness increased adoption and use of ICT, especially in the mobility realm. With this increased adoption and use, comes the need to raise awareness, education and train people across all walks of life on the implications of accessing their personal information through web-based and mobile smart devices.

RECOMMENDED TOPICS

The ICT in Healthcare track covers topics ranging from planning to the development and implementation of ICT in Healthcare initiatives. We invite papers covering a wide array of topics in these areas including but not limited to:

- Ehealth
- ICT in Healthcare
- Electronic Health Care and Policy Issues
- Technological and Policy dimensions of ICT-mediated Healthcare
- Meta-analyses of ICT literature on healthcare
- Telemedicine
- ICTs in healthcare delivery
- ICTs role in improving quality of care
- ICTs in healthcare self-management
- ICTs and healthcare information privacy
- Mobile Health
- Electronic Health Records and Electronic Medical Records
- Remote Management
- Remote Hospital Management

Submission Types and Guidelines

Full Length Submissions

Submissions must be no more than 12 pages, including references, appendices and title page. All submissions must follow the submission template specifications. Submissions must be original, and previously unpublished, conceptual or empirical research manuscripts. Papers that are highly rated by the reviewers will be considered for publications in selected journals. The paper that best represents, in terms of quality and suitability, the theme and ideals of the conference will be awarded the "Best Paper Award" during the conference.

Research-in-Progress Submissions

Submissions of no more than 7 pages. All research-in-progress submissions will be published in the proceedings as short papers.

Teaching Cases

We welcome submissions of teaching cases. The cases should be based on real situations and targeted at specific learning objectives. Cases should be no more than 12 pages and must be accompanied by instructor teaching notes (not included in the 12 pages). The teaching notes will not be published.

Panel and Tutorial Submissions

Submissions of not more than 3 pages: Proposals should include objectives, topics to be covered and full details of all presenters. Method of presentation is at the submitter's discretion; however, the submitter has the responsibility for providing his/her own panel members. All accepted proposals will appear in the conference proceedings.

Important Announcements

- The number of submissions by an author (including joint authorship) is strictly limited to a maximum of two.
- Authors of accepted papers (at least one person per submission) and all panel members and tutorial presenters MUST register AND attend the conference.
- Submissions of ALL TYPES must be received by the above deadlines.
- While the primary language of the conferences is English, papers in French will also be accepted. The ICT in Latin America and the Caribbean track will accept papers in Portuguese and Spanish, as well as English.
- Accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings in their entirety upon payment of registration fees. Papers accepted and presented at the conference will also be placed in the AIS e-Library. Papers not presented at the conference, for any reason, will not be included in the AIS e-Library.
